29 November 1950

Dear Art,

Thank you for your letter of 10 November bringing to my attention the qualifications of find, however, that he has already been interviewed in the past on a number of occasions with regard to employment with this Agency. Unfortunately, we do not have a vacancy at this time in which his experience and background can be fully utilized.

I had an appointment to see Ralph Immell yesterday, but I had to postpone this until his next visit to Washington which, I understand, will be on December 4th. If you are back from California by then, perhaps you would like to come along with him. In any case, I hope you will come by to see me sometime when you are in the neighborhood.

It was good of you to offer to help out, and I assure you I will keep this in mind. There is a lot to be done here, and it may be that I will have to enlist your support one of these days, at least on a part-time basis.

Sincerely,

5/ Bedell
